Dauphin Welcomes Rogers Hometown Hockey on November 16 & 17, 2019

Dauphin, MB – The City of Dauphin is thrilled to be a part of the sixth season of Rogers Hometown Hockey, along its cross-Canada road trip. The tour will stop in Dauphin on November 16 – 17, 2019, offering a weekend of free festivities for all ages featuring live entertainment, NHL alumni, and hockey-themed activities with a live outdoor viewing party of an NHL broadcast from the Sportsnet Mobile Studio. Once again, the hosts will be Sportsnet favourites Ron MacLean and Tara Slone.

“We are very excited to have Rogers Hometown Hockey making Dauphin one of 25 community stops throughout the 2019-20 NHL season,” said Allen Dowhan, Mayor of the City of Dauphin, “It’s a privilege to have this festival come to Dauphin for a full weekend in November and we thank Rogers Hometown Hockey and co-presenting partners Hyundai Canada and Scotiabank for helping to unite hockey fans across Canada.”
